THIEVES AND THUGS.

A $30,000 Diamond Robbery Discovered at the New York Custom House.

Brave Bear, Another Good Indian, Is Sent to the Happy Hunting Grounds for Murder.

An Indiana Farmer Kills His Wife and Child and Then Commits Suicide.

A Darkey Near Shreveport, Louisiana, Becomes Engaged at a White Man, Shoots Him and Escapes.

A Diamond Robbery.

New York, Nov. 15.—A package which ought to have contained diamonds, to the amount of about $30,000, was shipped on board the steamer City of Chester, and consigned to the firm of Strasburg & Co., Maiden Lane, New York, was on opening it in the examining room of the appraisers' department, found to be stuffed with paper. The package is rather a disproportionately large wooden box, wrapped in paper, the cover of which appeared to be sealed and the seals were apparently intact. It was received at the public stores in Washington street in the same condition in which it was when opened.

The purser of the steamship testified to receiving a wooden box in such suspiciously bad order that he refused to receive it, but after having concluded to receive it, he deemed it indispensable to cover it with a strong paper wrapper, which he sealed in order to increase the safety of the supposed contents of the package.

Hanging of Brave Bear.

YANKTON, Dak., Nov. 15.—Brave Bear, the Sioux chief, convicted of the murder of Jos. Johnson on the 10th of May, was hanged to-day in the jail yard. The execution was private. He was taken from the jail to the United States marshal's office, and there bound with straps, leaving his feet free so he could walk to the scaffold. After his arms were pinioned he called for a man who could talk Indian, and with little delay an interpreter was procured from the outside and Brave Bear had a few moments conversation with him in the Sioux language. He made no confession but did not deny the deed. He asked the interpreter to send word to his people to make no attempt to avenge his death and omit all mourning exercises. He also asked that a message be sent to his people by the United States that the Great Father might know he had lived a good Indian. He mounted the scaffold with a firm tread and stood upon the trap while the rope was adjusted about his neck and the black cap was drawn over his face. Most of the attendants stepped back to the side of the platform. It was necessary for a couple of officers to stand near him. In nervous agitation he caught hold of the dropping rope as it swung in front of him and clung to it with the fingers of his pinioned hands. The officers released his hold and moved the rope out of his reach. A priest advanced to his side and whispered a few words of prayer and then stepped back to the edge of the platform. The officer in charge of the string rang the bell in the marshal's office. A man in the room, in response to the signal, jerked the rope attached to the trigger under the scaffold, and at 12:30 o'clock p. m. the drop fell. The Indian shot through the opening, and as the rope pulled out there was a crashing, the trap struggled for a few moments, but the end came quickly. Soon there was nothing but a convulsive twitching of the muscles. In fifteen minutes he was pronounced dead. Fifteen minutes later the body was cut down and delivered to the undertaker, who caused it to be buried in the Catholic cemetery. There was little excitement attending the execution. Everything was orderly. The affair was conducted without accident. This is the first instance where an Indian has been hung in Dakota for a crime against a white man.

A Farmer's Crime.

RAUB, Ind., Nov. 15.—A farmer named Jasper Spaulding, living near this place, first knocked senseless his little son and then his wife with a whiffletree.

He then cut their throats with a razor, after which he cut his own throat. His mother-in-law, visiting Spaulding's residence, discovered the whole family lying dead on the floor. The cause was insanity.

A Negro's Crime.

SHREVEPORT, La., Nov. 15.—Near Napoleonville, last night, Irwin Garrett, a young nephew of a prominent planter, remonstrated with a negro hand, called Yank, and the latter shot Garrett through the heart, and fled to the canebrakes.

No One to Blame.

POURKEPES, N. Y., Nov. 15.—The fast train on the New York Central railway leaving New York at 10:30 yesterday afternoon, while passing Peekskill, ran into a locomotive which was crossing the track. The engine and a drawing room car of the fast train were hurled from the track.

Four persons were seriously injured, among the number Warren G. Derby, of Brooklyn. Secretary Folger was on the train, but not hurt.

The collision was caused by careless signaling. The engine of the Peekskill train crossing from the down to the up track, came in collision with the fast train. The baggage car and drawing room car Rob Roy of the fast train were slightly damaged, but the next drawing room car, the Riverside, had the left side torn out. There were thirteen passengers in it, three of whom were ladies. One, Miss Katie Chatfield, of New York, had her hands cut by broken glass, but was able to return to the city. James D. Maxwell, of Amsterdam, New York, and Warren Derby, of Brooklyn, sat on the east side of the car, and when the collision occurred, were plunged through a plate glass window to the ground. Derby is badly cut about the face and hands, and both eyes are blackened, but no bones were broken, and he is out of danger. Maxwell is cut about the face and head, one rib broken, and it is supposed is injured internally, and may die.

A Big Verdict.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 15.—In the common pleas court, judgment for $150,000 was rendered to-day against J. W. Batchelder and surties on his bond, as the former cashier of the Planter's bank, which went into litigation some years ago. Irregularities on the part of Louis Behan, jr., teller of the bank, caused heavy losses, and in the liquidation of the affairs, a suit was brought against Batchelder and his securities, to recover the losses, by parties affected, on the ground of lack of close supervision of the teller's accounts by the cashier. The first and second trials, the jury failed to make a verdict, on a third trial the verdict was for the plaintiff but the court of appeals reversed the decision, and granted a new trial, which resulted as stated above. Batchelder and others, the defendants, are gentlemen of high standing in Kentucky.

What a Suicide.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 15.—This morning a lady who occupies room No. 7 in the Walbach block, at 16th and Champa streets, became alarmed at a very strong smell of gas in the building. She spoke to a physician, whose office is in the same building, and asked him to try and discover where the gas was escaping. The doctor traced the odor to rooms No. 5 and 6, which have been occupied by Dr. G. W. Wiener. The doors of both rooms were locked, and the transoms were closed. The doctor forced the doors open, and found the apartments, which were connected by an open door filled with gas. In the other room he found an argand gas burner, sitting on a table, with the gas turned on, but not lighted. On a lounge in one corner of the room, lay Dr. Wiener, in an insensible condition. The doctor done all that could be done to revive the physician but to no purpose. He remained unconscious till 1 o'clock this afternoon when he died. Dr. Wiener was about 35 years of age and was unmarried. Some think it was a suicide, but those who know him best, however, think death the result of an accident.

Cruel With Drink.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Louis Olsen, wife and three children, arrived here late Sunday night from Minneapolis, and put up at the Vanderbilt Hotel, near the Grand Central depot. Olsen had been drinking heavily, and early this morning quarreled with his wife. He fired two shots at her, one ball taking effect in her arm near the shoulder. The woman was conveyed to Bellevue hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate the arm. Olsen was arrested, and is now held to await the result of his wife's injuries. The children were turned over to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. Olsen had lived in Minneapolis five years. He was on his way to Europe to take charge of emigrants destined for Minnesota. He was crazed with drink at the time of the shooting, and when arrested told the officers he shot his wife because she was engaged in a conspiracy with several men to rob him of his money.

Railway Accident.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 15.—A serious railway accident occurred this morning at Robert station, two miles east of Hudson on the Chicago, St. Paul and Minnesota railway eastern division. A stock train in charge of conductor O'Connor was stopping for water. O'Connor's brakeman named Grover, a traveling engineer named Trim and the man to whom the stock belonged were sitting in the caboose. Without a moments notice the freight train backed into the end of the caboose setting fire to the car. The engineer and fireman of the freight jumped in time to save their lives, but those imprisoned in the caboose were unable to escape. Grover managed to crawl out from under the wreck, but his right arm was torn from the socket and he died from loss of blood within an hour and O'Connor was burned to death and nothing but his bones recovered, and Trim was badly injured but may recover. He was brought here to the hospital. The stock man was not injured, this being his second experience of this kind inside of a week. This trip being for the purpose of gathering up the stray stock from the accident of a week ago. Several cars of such train were badly wrecked and mortally wounded the cattle.

Law and Order.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 15.—The citizens Law and Order League held its first public meeting in Tremont Temple to-day. Rufus Frost, president. The report showed sixty prosecutions of liquor dealers in the courts of Boston and vicinity, and forty convictions. Judgment has been secured in the municipal court in school house law, and if the decision of the supreme court is favorable, more than one hundred bar rooms will be closed.

Elected Senator.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 15.—Colquitt was to-day elected United States Senator for the long term.

SANTA FE CONTEST.

Judge Axtell Issues a Writ of Mandamus to the Commissioners.

They Must Appear on Friday and Show Cause for Their Action or Go to Jail.

Political Resolutions Adopted at a Meeting of the Board of Trade of New York.

General Grant Writes a Magazine Article in Defense of Fitz John Porter and Appeals to the Government.

Santa Fe County.

SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 15.—Chief Justice Axtell, this afternoon, issued an order for a writ of mandamus, returnable on Friday, at 10 o'clock, against the County Commissioners. On that day they will have to show cause, for their recent action in not making the county returns, according to the poll books. They will undoubtedly have to revoke the certificates they have issued or else go to jail which they say they will do, rather than adopt the other course. Prominent members of their own party denounce their action, and considerable feeling on the matter is manifested here.

Political Resolutions.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 15.—The Board of Trade have adopted the following: Resolved: That the result of the recent election is a gratifying response to the work of this board, and kindred organizations, in educating the people to resist the encroachments on their political and commercial rights, and that they will in the future support such men, and such parties, as will restrain corporate power and place a limit to its exaction upon the people.

Grant on Fitz John Porter.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Gen. Grant's new magazine article, entitled an "Undeserved Stigma," (conclusively reviews the case of Gen. Fitz John Porter, giving the grounds for his former belief in Porter's guilt, and his present conviction of his entire innocence. The article then appeals to the government and the country for prompt action in Porter's behalf.

Coroner's Inquest.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 15.—At a coroner's inquest held this afternoon, upon the bodies of the three men killed by the railroad accident at Grain Valley last night, the testimony was taken of Conductor Hamel, Engineer Smart of the construction train, and one or two others employed by the company. The testimony showed that the train was running fifteen miles per hour, and had passed through one cut and was just entering another, when a brakeman on the train signaled the engineer to stop. The hand car was then a few rods ahead of the train, and the men were trying to lift it off the track; the engine was reversed, and brakes applied, but too late to avert the catastrophe. Train men testified that they were on the lookout for the hand car, and the whistle was blown three times shortly before the accident.

Romance.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The annals of romance furnish no more startling story than that furnished from West Brighton, Staten Island. On Monday morning Mr. Daniel Dempsey, an undertaker, was summoned to the residence of Mrs. Connolly on Henderson avenue, to take charge of the interment of her son Michael, aged twenty-eight years, who she said died Sunday night. Preparations were made for the funeral, but to the great surprise of all it was discovered that the body after being placed in the coffin had moved. The remains were examined by several physicians and after being carefully watched day and night, a coroner was called this morning when a physician, under his order, examined the body and pronounced it dead. The burial then took place, the remains were deposited in a grave in Holy Cross cemetery, Flatbush, Long Island.

The West Indies.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The captain of the brig Letitia, arrived to-day from Miraguane, reports that on September 21, when near St. Mary, Hayti, a large comet of great brilliancy was seen bearing east by south and visible for some time after sun rise. The captain says: "The comet has been visible in Hayti some time and is very large and brilliant. As we came northward it diminished in size and brightness and appeared to be moving in a more southerly direction over Hayti. It was seen as late as 10 o'clock in the morning, and appeared much larger than on our approach to New York. Most people in Hayti think their last days have come. After the comet last year they had small-pox and lost upwards of 60,000 lives throughout the dominion. They always look upon the comet as a bad omen, and are at a loss to know what trouble this one will bring them."

The Coffee Crop.

The coffee crop was poor this year, and sold in the market at 3 1/4 cents per pound. Logwood sells at from $13 to $14 per ton, delivered on board. The amount of logwood on hand is small. People are very poor.

Associated Press Agreement.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Negotiations which have been pending for several months between the Western and New York Associated Press, culminated to-day by the unanimous agreement for a joint management. The proposition came from the New York Associated Press, and was accepted by the board of directors of the Western Associated Press. The management is placed in the hands of a joint committee, represented by W. H. Smith and Walter Haldeman, representing the Western Associated Press; Whitelaw Reid, representing the Tribune, and Thomas B. Connery, representing the New York Associated Press. Mr. Charles A. Dana, of the Sun, was elected chairman. The committee entered upon their duties this morning. A further meeting will be held to-morrow when a plan of service will be adopted. The Western Associated Press, since the termination of the contract between the Associated Press Association, preferred cable, proved to be superior in many respects to that of the New York association, and they have also organized a new service in the last month. The work of readjustment will continue until all difficulties are disposed of and there be but one general service. A new contract will be made with the Western Union Telegraph Company.

A New Map.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—A new map of the United States has been prepared under the direction of Mr. Roesser of the general land office, and is now in the hands of the printers, in New York, and soon will be ready for distribution. The new map is said to be the most complete and accurate one ever compiled by the government. It contains over four thousand places, not on the old maps. These additions are mostly in the west which has made such rapid strides as to render the maps now in use almost valueless.

Striking Puddlers.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 15.—The striking puddlers, at the Leclaire iron mill, say the puddlers at Greencastle and Terre Haute, Ind., will also strike and stay out as long as they do. The demand of the men is for the wages, re-kindling organizations, in educating the people to resist the encroachments on their political and commercial rights, and that they will in the future support such men, and such parties, as will restrain corporate power and place a limit to its exaction upon the people.

Ways and Means Committee.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.—There seems to be some misunderstanding regarding the time of meeting of the Ways and Means Committee. On July 8 the House passed a resolution instructing the committee to assemble on the second Thursday of November, at Washington. It has since been informally decided to meet on November 20, in order to allow the distant members to arrive, and after the election Chairman Kelly gave notice accordingly.

Writ of Mandamus.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 15.—An answer to the alternative writ of mandamus was served on City Register Berg, to compel him to count for Col. Brodhead, certain disputed precincts in the ninth congressional district. The order was made to-day in the supreme court by the city counselor, and December 1 set to hear the argument. Col. Brodhead will make a vigorous effort to have these disputed returns counted in his favor.

Intend To Strike.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 15.—The railroad coal miners in the Pittsburgh district this afternoon resolved to strike November 20, unless the operators concede the advance of 1 1/2 cents per bushel for mining. The present rate is 8 1/2 cents per bushel. The strike which failed last summer, was against the reduction from 4 cents to 3 1/2 cents, and the miners believe that the present heavy demand for coal, will help cohere their proposition.

Distinguished Guests.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 15.—A party of Leadville officials and thirty citizens, numbering about thirty, arrived here to-night over the Burlington road. They were met about 100 miles out by a deputation of Kansas City aldermen, which went out to receive them. The party will remain here to-morrow, the guests of the city. They leave to-morrow night for Chicago.

Railroad Conductors.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 15.—The annual convention of the Railway Conductors' Mutual Aid and Benefit Association, of the United States and Canada, is now in session. The annual address showed that the organization has over 7,000 members, and has paid over $3,000,000 in benefits.

Mrs. Scoville.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—An application for a new trial in the insanity case of Mrs. Scoville was again continued to-day, her attorney stating that he had received a dispatch from her saying that she intended to be present but missed the train. Her husband says she always misses the train.

Found Dead.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—This afternoon the body of J. D. Mahan was found, in his office, he had evidently been dead for some days. There were no marks of violence and the cause of death is not known.

Mexico Murders.

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 15.—In Dewitt county, two escaped Mexican convicts met with James Shay, on the road, and shot him. They then beat out his brains with a gun and robbed him.

Suspended.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—A number of young members of the Board of Trade were suspended to-day for indulging in the pastime of knocking off the hats of the older members.

Spots on the Sun.

KROOK, Iowa, Nov. 15.—Observers in this city claim that the telescope revealed spots on the sun to-day forming perfectly the No. 24, or the figures 2 and 4.

Didn't Work.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—An inquiry into the Park theatre fire, showed that the fire alarm boxes on the stage, failed to work.
